

GRAB HANDLE

The grab handle has been a standard feature on Knott cast couplings since 1993. This enables easy manoeuvring of the trailer without handling the coupling head, towing eye or handbrake lever which often leads to damage or dirty hands.