

SAFETY SKID

Another longstanding feature on all cast couplings since 1993, the skid is an integral feature of the cast housing and protects the overrun lever and handbrake lever from damage from sleeping policemen and other objects under the trailer. This feature is mandatory in many European countries.